

Guests Shirley and Paul Barter from Asante were presented with a laptop through Neil Duncan. They reminded us of their work in slum schools in Nairobi where a computer centre has been established in the school they support, which originally had 6 laptops and a printer taken by Neil in his hand luggage. There are now 24 machines in use and they continue their support through Asante coffee shop

Felicitations to Martin Harman who gets married this weekend. Bill will send a card.

Steve Davies was then Inducted as an Associate Member and gave a suitably brief response telling us he has been married 25 years (well done) and has boys ages 14, 12 and 10. Bill handed over a copy of Objects of Rotary and read the 4 way test.

Shaun O'Brien then told us about his retirement project presenting for Vectis Radio, a community radio specialising in helping children with special needs. It runs a radio school . LISTEN IN ON 104.6FM OR ON LINE. He is on on Monday 1-4pm

Shaun then ran the raffle where Messrs Koscian, Gidley and LambHughes were successful

Dave Sillence reported Duck Race made £1298.50 down from max sales of 1716 a few years ago. It has netted £19261 over 15 years and he says he will continue next year.
